

Fundraising 2015

September 30, 2015

Dear Students, Family, and Friends:

It is time for our annual fundraiser. In previous years, we have sold See's Candies with great success so we will be doing this again this year. These holiday-themed chocolates and classic candies like peanut brittle will make great gifts for the upcoming holiday season. The funds raised will go towards the following:

1. Special guest instructors.

Sensei only charges a nominal fee to attend these seminars and clinics, in hopes that as many students as possible can benefit from expert guest instruction. Unfortunately, the seminar fees often do not cover all of the expenses.

2. Scholarship fund.

Sensei realizes that it can be costly to enter several tournaments a year. To help out students that might not otherwise be able to compete, he has a small scholarship fund that is based on financial need and merit.

3. Continuing education.

In order to keep up on current teaching techniques and advances, Sensei Nishimura is required to travel to foreign seminars. By doing this, he insures that your child is getting the best and most current instruction possible.
